The International Korean Business Centre, with headquarters in Pyongyang and overseas office in Bangkok, organizes an exclusive BUSINESS TRIP to the DPR of Korea (North Korea) from 6th April to 13th August 2009. The Committee for Cultural Relations with Foreign Countries, high ministry of the Republic in charge of international exchange including business, will host and facilitate meetings with commerce officials in charge of your professional area.

All passports are invited to apply except for: U.S.A., Republic of Korea (South Korea) and Japan due to special protocol in bilateral relations.

The number of visitors is limited to 10. Participants in the delegation will be accepted according to their order of arrival (pre-subscription), and after clearing all details and conditions.

Participants will be accompanied during all the visit by Special Delegate of the DPRK Government Mr. Alejandro Cao de Benos, who is also President of the IKBC. A welcome dinner will be hosted by the Ministry with the participation of its Director.

Previous to the trip, we'll offer an introduction to Korean customs and business approach.

DISCLAIMER NOTE

If the 'participant' wants any coverage or insurance, he'll be fully responsible for its contract and implementation.

Filmmakers, journalists or any other media-related person aren't allowed to participate.

We consider privacy an essential issue when doing business.
